NET-A-PORTER's Retail Fashion Director, Lisa Aiken together with Co-Founder and Creative Director of Social Zoo, Pernille Teisbaek hosted an intimate dinner in Trekroner Fort to mark the start of Copenhagen Fashion Week with nine of its key Danish designers.

Guests began the evening by boarding boats at Copenhagen harbour, where they were served a selection of seafood including galladeau oysters and Icelandic salmon. Once they disembarked at Trekroner Fort, guests were greeted by singer-songwriter Drew, they went on to dine on shrimps, fried turbot and a selection of salads followed by ice cream and espresso martinis on the quayside for dessert.

Food was provided by .506, a catering company led by former Noma chef, Søren Westh using sustainable and locally sourced ingredients.
